illegal selling of land in Sangam Vihar, New Delhi in connivance with Police personnel of Okhla Police Station;

(b) whether there are any such cases involving widows of ex-servicemen in Delhi and forwarded by Army Soldier Board, Delhi, if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether any investigations have been conducted in this regard;

(d) if so, the details thereof; and

(e) what action has been taken by Government against the Police officials responsible therefore and the persons selling the land unauthorisedly?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI M. M. JACOB): (a) The police has reported that no complaint of illegal sale of plot in Sangam Vihar in connivance with the police personnel of Okhla police Station has been received by them.

(b) to (e) complaint from Smt. Gaytri Devi, a war widow, was received by the Delhi police through the Army Soldiers Board in July, 1991. The complaint alleged that she had purchased a plot of land measuring 100 sq. yards in khasra number 1596 in Tughlakabad from one Shri Mohinder Singh. She had gone to her native place to arrange money for construction. When she came back, she found that one Shri Shardanand Singh had constructed a room on her aforesaid plot. During police enquiries, Shri Shardanand Singh claimed to have purchased the plot from one Shir Ahmed Khan, a property dealer. A case of cheating has been registered against Shri Ahmed Khan who is absconding. Proceedings have been initiated under section 145 Cr.P.C. regarding the possession of the plot.
